Then we discussed purchasing materials for the class and Levi suggested green deer hides.

They would be responsible for providing their own supplies for the class, which will be provided in a supplies list for the class. We went over the need for leather, sinew, glover needles, green deer hide. The class is to be held on Feb. 23rd, 3-8 pm, with a 5 pm dinner break.

Next we discussed the survey results. There were 20 responses, from florida, kansas, copan area, with the most common age range in responses being around 35-44. Days that work best for cultural classes were said to be Sat, sunday and friday. Best time after 6 pm. There was a wide interested in all of the classes that were suggested.

Next we discussed the use of jotform. Giving stipulations for signing up for classes, to confirm attendance leading closer to the class date- to allow space for others interested if there are last minute cancellations. We ultimately decided not to use jot form and continue doing things how we have been.

Levi then suggested having multiple classes on one subject, split up, so that more people have an opportunity to participate in case they were unable to join the first class.

Next we discussed getting a zoom account and creating an email for that zoom that we can all access. Alicia said that she would look into creating the email and what it would require.

Next we revisited making a wampum belt and purchasing supplies. We discussed not wanting to involve politics in the creation of this belt. Sarah suggested we create a write up about the belt, before sharing publicly.

We then moved on to new business.

#12.) Martina made a motion to ratify poll votes made on 12/14/2024

It was seconded by Alicia.

We decided that the culture camp discussion would require a separate special meeting, as there is a lot to go over.

Next we discussed a drum group. Sarah had shared that a song was gifted to our tribe a few years ago at powwow. We had talked about having these classes 1-2 times a week for an hour and a half, to teach the basics of drumming and how to respect the drum. We discussed various people to head the class, and provide beverages. Who to ask for use of a big drum and compensation for drummers. We ultimately decided that we need to wait until we have confirmation of participation for drummers, before scheduling anything.

Next we discussed the various topics that we need to go over in a special meeting, including the culture camp and wampum belt.

#13.) Levi made a motion to spend up to $100 at Tacos Maria, for January 19th special meeting.
